

Human Leadership

Empowering a more human experience

Programme overview

Leaders are required, now more than ever, to role-model a more authentic, psychologically-safe and inclusive, work culture that carefully balances resilience and performance.

From Bailey & French, pioneers in positive psychology, the Human Leadership programme helps leaders develop the skills required to create environments for their teams and organisations to flourish and thrive.

What you'll learn

1. An introduction to Human Leadership
2. Authenticity Improve self-awareness through a deeper understanding of strengths and purpose
3. Inclusivity Build awareness of others through curiosity without judgement to build inclusivity
4. Role-modelling Authentic role-modelling with intention, open to challenge, amplifying inclusive behaviour
5. Human connection Strengthen relationships through trust, psychological safety and connecting on a more human level with team and key stakeholders
